

Quality policy

GNOX will supply mechanical components that meet customers' needs and wishes for products and services by:

- Delivering the products in accordance with agreed requirements, with a focus on product quality and secure delivery.
- Performing tasks carefully, maintaining order and striving to prevent errors at all levels.
- Continuously developing and improving way of working, developing our knowledge and skills.
- Collaborating with knowledgeable and reliable suppliers.
- Building long-term relationships with customers, suppliers and other stakeholders.
- Taking responsibility for your own tasks and help each other.
- Treating customers and other stakeholders with respect and be accommodating.
- Always striving to do our best and look for opportunities and solutions.

Environmental policy

The goal of GNOX's environmental work is to protect the resources in our environment and reduce the environmental impact of operations on the environment by:

- Complying with environmental laws, ordinances and regulations.
- Managing the resources we use and prioritizing products and services that reduces the environmental impact.
- Minimizing and sorting waste.
- Recommending customers environmentally friendly alternatives whenever possible.
- Constantly improving products and way of working, developing our knowledge and skills.
- Focusing on reducing our negative environmental impact.
- Collaborating with suppliers that actively work to reduce their environmental impact.
- Creating a safe and environmentally friendly workplace.
- Always striving to do our best and look opportunities and solutions.